

SeedforTodayDevotional.com

Our Month of TAKING CHARGE

A 31-Day Daily Devotional for
October, 2026

Seed
FOR TODAY
DEVOTIONAL

Noah Simpe
Bediako

Seed for Today

Our Month of
TAKING CHARGE

A 31-Day Devotional for August

Written by Pastor (Bishop) Noah Simpe Bediako
Founder & Presiding Bishop, HighCity Church Worldwide

Published by HighCity Church Worldwide

Copyright © 2026 Noah Simpe Bediako / HighCity Church
Worldwide

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, distributed, or transmitted in any form or by any means, including photocopying, recording, or other electronic or mechanical methods, without the prior written permission of the publisher, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical reviews and certain other noncommercial uses permitted by copyright law.

Unless otherwise indicated, Scripture quotations are taken from the King James Version (KJV) of the Holy Bible, which is in the public domain.

Published by the HighCity Church Worldwide

The Cathedral, Old Ashongman, Ga East, Accra, Ghana.
First Edition, 2026

Contact

Our Month of Taking Charge.....	6
Day 1 - Take Charge!.....	9
Day 2 - Set Your Face To Seek The Lord!.....	11
Day 3 - Fill The City With The Word!.....	13
Day 4 - Start Your Week With Worship!.....	15
Day 5 - Start Your Day With Prayer!.....	18
Day 6 - Don't Be Ignorant Of Satanic Devices!.....	21
Day 7 - He That Is Joined To The Lord Is One Spirit!.....	24
Day 8 - Activate The Rivers Of Living Water!.....	27
Day 9 - Speak To The Sycamine Tree!.....	30
Day 10 - Every Good Thing Is Coming To Me!.....	33
Day 11 - Happy Birthday Pastor Sandra!.....	36
Day 12 - SATAN! GET LOST!.....	39
Day 13 - Don't Pack Your Bags Yet!.....	41
Day 14 - Wait For Your Appointed Time!.....	43
Day 15 - A Strange Woman Is A Narrow Pit!.....	45
Day 16 - The Love Of Money Is The Root Of All Evil!.....	48
Day 17 - Happy Birthday Pastor Simpe!.....	51
Day 18 - I Look To You!.....	54

Seed for Today

Day 19 - 4 Boundaries Every Christian Should Set!.....	56
Day 20 - Fill Me! My Soul Pants After You!.....	59
Day 21 - Talk To Jesus!.....	61
Day 22 - The Miracle Days Are Here With Us!.....	63
Day 23 - Show Me Your Glory!.....	66
Day 24 - Subdue Nations Before Us!.....	69
Day 25 - You Can Overcome The World!.....	72
Day 26 - 6 Things The Lord Hates!.....	74
Day 27 - There Are Two Media Of Prayer!.....	77
Day 28 - 6 Graces To Abound In!.....	80
Day 29 - Edify Yourself!.....	82
Day 30 - Prayer That Gets Results!.....	85
Day 31 - 21 Days Of Prayer And Fasting!.....	88
Prayer For Salvation.....	91
ABOUT THE AUTHOR.....	92

Our Month of Taking Charge

Welcome to October 2026

— Our Month of Taking Charge!

There comes a season when waiting must give way to action, hesitation must give way to courage, and prayer must begin to produce corresponding steps of faith. God told Israel, “Behold, I have given you the land: go in and possess the land” (Deuteronomy 1:8). The promise was God's, but possessing it required their response. This month, we are arising to take responsibility for what God has entrusted to us.

Taking charge is not about controlling people or forcing outcomes. It is about accepting responsibility and exercising our God-given authority through faith, wisdom, and diligent action. We will pray, but we will also plan. We will believe, but we will also build. We will expect God's help, but we will also discipline ourselves, develop our gifts, manage our resources, confront our challenges, and take the necessary steps towards progress.

Throughout this month's SEED, we will be challenged to take charge of our spiritual lives, thoughts, health, relationships, finances, work, ministry, time, opportunities, and assignments. We will learn to seek God early, live by faith, resist the enemy, strengthen ourselves through prayer, overcome the world, and refuse to surrender our future to fear, delay, distraction, or discouragement. October is also a call to deeper prayer and spiritual sensitivity. Taking charge begins in the spirit. We cannot successfully confront what is before us while neglecting our relationship with God. We must seek His face, hear His Word, pray fervently, walk in righteousness, and remain sensitive to the Holy Spirit. Spiritual authority grows where there is submission to God.

This month, refuse passivity. Address what you have been postponing. Repair what needs attention. Finish what you started. Make the difficult decision. Learn the necessary skill. Have the important conversation. Start the project. Return to prayer. Share the gospel. Serve faithfully. Give generously. Take the next step. Small acts of obedience and diligence, sustained over time, can produce remarkable change.

I believe October will be a month of clarity, courage, order, discipline, advancement, and fruitfulness. May God give you wisdom for every decision, strength for every responsibility, grace for every challenge, and favour for every assignment. May barriers give way, opportunities open, and the work of your hands prosper according to His will.

As you read each day's devotional, do more than read—pray, believe, confess, and act. Write down what God puts on your heart and take practical steps. Let the Word become flesh in your daily decisions.

October is our month of taking charge! By faith we will possess, by wisdom we will build, and through diligent action we will advance.

Seed for Today

Arise. Take responsibility. Take action. TAKE CHARGE!

— Pastor Simpe

Take Charge!

October is our month of taking charge! By faith, wisdom, and diligent action, we will arise, accept responsibility, confront what must be confronted, and possess what God has placed before us.

“Behold, I have given you the land: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers...” —

Deuteronomy 1:8 KJV

There comes a time when waiting must give way to action. Taking charge is not trying to control everything; it is accepting responsibility for what God has entrusted to you. This October, refuse passivity, excuses, fear, and procrastination. Believe God, seek His wisdom, make the necessary decisions, and take the steps that move you forward.

Faith sees what God has promised; wisdom shows you how to proceed; diligence keeps you working until results appear. Pray, but also plan. Believe, but also build.

Expect increase, but also manage what is already in your hands faithfully. God will give you wisdom for difficult decisions, courage to confront obstacles, and strength to pursue your assignment.

October is our month of taking charge! Take charge of your spiritual life, time, health, finances, relationships, work, ministry, and opportunities. By faith we will possess, by wisdom we will build, and through diligent action we will advance. Arise! Take responsibility! Take action! Take charge!

Set Your Face To Seek The Lord!

Those who deliberately and wholeheartedly seek the Lord will find Him. When you make God your priority, He will reveal Himself, direct your steps, and satisfy the longing of your heart.

“And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting...” — Daniel 9:3 KJV

“And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.” — Jeremiah 29:13 KJV

To set your face to seek the Lord is to make a deliberate decision that nothing will distract you from pursuing God. Daniel set his face toward God with prayer and fasting. There are seasons when casual devotion is not enough; you must shut out distractions, create time, humble yourself, and seek the Lord with your whole heart.

Do not wait until everything fails before you seek God. Seek Him early! Seek Him before making the decision, entering the relationship, accepting the opportunity, or taking the next step. “Those that seek me early shall find me” (see Proverbs 8:17). When God becomes your first resort rather than your last option, His wisdom can preserve you from many unnecessary battles.

God is not hiding from the person who genuinely desires Him. Set your face to seek the Lord! Return to prayer, fasting, worship, and the Word. Seek Him beyond His blessings; seek His presence, His will, and His ways. As you seek Him early and with all your heart, may you find Him, hear His voice, receive His direction, and encounter His power in Jesus’ name!

Fill The City With The Word!

God is counting on you to help reach the rest of the world. Every believer has a message to share, a person to reach, and a part to play in filling our cities and nations with the Word of God.

“...behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine...”

— Acts 5:28 KJV

The early church did not keep the gospel within the walls of their meetings. They preached publicly and from house to house until Jerusalem was filled with their message. We have the same assignment today. Our streets, homes, workplaces, schools, communities, and digital spaces must hear the good news of Jesus Christ.

You may never stand behind a pulpit, but you can still preach. Your phone can become a missionary tool. Share the link to the sermon, devotional, livestream, testimony, or invitation. Send it personally to someone. Post it on your status. Share it in appropriate groups. One simple click could put the Word before someone who desperately needs hope, salvation, or direction.

Fill the city with the Word! Do not merely watch, read, and receive—share! God is counting on you to help reach the rest of the world. Tell somebody about Jesus, invite somebody to church, and share the link. Let us fill our city, our nation, and our generation with the knowledge of Christ!

Start Your Week With Worship!

Begin your week in the presence of God. The early church gathered on the first day of the week for fellowship, worship, the Word, and the mobilization of human and financial resources for the advancement of God's Kingdom.

“And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them...” —
Acts 20:7 KJV

“Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him...” — 1
Corinthians 16:2 KJV

The first day of the week was significant in the life of the early church. The disciples came together, broke bread, received the Word, strengthened fellowship, and prepared themselves for the work of ministry. They understood that gathering was not merely a religious routine; it was a time to be refreshed, equipped, connected, and mobilized for Kingdom advancement.

Start your week with worship! Before you become consumed by business, deadlines, pressures, and responsibilities, make room for God. Gather with the saints, hear the Word, worship wholeheartedly, serve with your gifts, and give faithfully. When believers bring their faith, abilities, time, relationships, and financial resources together, the work of God advances.

Make worship a priority, not an afterthought. Start your week with God and go forth ready to serve! May the Lord renew your strength, prosper the work of your hands, and use your life and resources to advance His Kingdom throughout this week.

- Lord, draw me into deeper fellowship and worship.
- Lord, prosper my work and make me a resource for Your Kingdom.

Seed for Today

- Lord, use my gifts, time, and influence to advance the gospel.

Start Your Day With Prayer!

Prayer should not be an emergency response; it should be the rhythm of our daily walk with God. The men and women of faith cultivated regular times of prayer, including seeking God in the morning.

“My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.” — Psalm 5:3 KJV

“Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.” — Psalm 55:17 KJV

The great men and women of faith understood the power of regular prayer. David prayed morning, noon, and evening; Daniel maintained his practice of praying three times a day. Jesus Himself rose early, while it was still dark, and withdrew to a solitary place to pray. They did not merely pray when trouble came; prayer was woven into the pattern of their lives.

Start your day with prayer because the morning helps set the direction for everything that follows. Before the demands, voices, pressures, and distractions of the day take over, turn your heart toward God. Commit your plans to Him, receive wisdom from His Word, and seek grace for the responsibilities ahead.

Do not allow your phone, messages, news, or worries to have the first and best moments of your day. Establish your morning watch. Even when your schedule is demanding, deliberately create time to pray. A consistent prayer life strengthens your spirit, sharpens your discernment, and keeps your heart conscious of God's presence.

Start your day with prayer! Seek God in the morning, remain connected to Him throughout the day, and return to Him continually. May your morning watch become an altar of fellowship, strength, wisdom, and fresh grace for every new day.

- Lord, awaken in me a fresh desire to seek You every morning.
- Father, give me wisdom, strength, and direction for each day.
- Lord, help me build and maintain a consistent life of prayer.

Don't Be Ignorant Of Satanic Devices!

The devil does not operate in a vacuum; he works through devices, schemes, temptations, deception, and spiritual traps. A discerning believer must recognize his strategies and refuse to give him an advantage.

“Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.” — 2 Corinthians 2:11 KJV

Paul warns that ignorance can give Satan an advantage. The enemy works through schemes designed to deceive, divide, enslave, accuse, and weaken believers. This is why spiritual warfare requires more than shouting at the devil; it requires truth, discernment, obedience, prayer, and a disciplined Christian life.

In the immediate context of Paul's warning, unforgiveness is a serious danger. Bitterness can poison relationships and divide the church. Likewise, believers must reject every curse or occult practice, break destructive addictions, flee sexual immorality, resist deception, and refuse habits that create opportunities for sin to gain influence. “Neither give place to the devil” (Ephesians 4:27).

Do not fight spiritual battles while protecting the very attitudes and behaviours that weaken you. Forgive quickly. Repent sincerely. Renounce ungodly practices. Guard your mind, relationships, appetites, and sexuality. Fill your heart with the Word, remain prayerful, and submit yourself to God. What you discern, you can confront; what you expose to God's truth loses its power to deceive you.

Don't be ignorant of satanic devices! May God expose every scheme working against your life, family, and church. Walk in truth, holiness, forgiveness, and spiritual vigilance; resist the devil steadfastly in faith, and refuse to give him an advantage.

Seed for Today

- Father, expose every scheme of the enemy and give me discernment.
- Lord, cleanse my heart from bitterness, bondage, and every sinful foothold.
- By Your grace, strengthen me to resist the devil and stand firm in faith.

He That Is Joined To The Lord Is One Spirit!

Being joined to the Lord is a profound mystery of our salvation: mortal men and women, through union with Christ, can become one spirit with the immortal God. This union must shape how we live, think, worship, and use our bodies.

*“But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.” — 1
Corinthians 6:17 KJV*

What an extraordinary mystery! Through Christ, we are brought into a spiritual union and fellowship with God that human effort could never achieve. We do not become God, but by His Spirit we are joined to the Lord and participate in the life He gives. The Holy Spirit dwells within us, making our bodies His temple and bringing us into living communion with Christ.

This truth should transform how you see yourself. You are not called to face temptation, weakness, ministry, or life's battles merely in human strength. The Spirit of God dwells in you. As you yield to Him, He produces His fruit in you, strengthens your inner man, renews your mind, and empowers you to walk according to God's will.

Paul places this revelation in the context of sexual purity. If you are joined to the Lord, your body cannot be treated carelessly. Flee fornication and every form of sexual immorality. Honour God with your body, thoughts, relationships, and choices. Your union with Christ is both a privilege and a call to holiness.

Live conscious of your union with Christ! Abide in Him through prayer, His Word, worship, obedience, and fellowship with His Spirit. May the reality of being joined to the Lord fill you with strength, purity, courage, and an overwhelming consciousness of His presence.

Seed for Today

- Father, deepen my consciousness of my union with Christ.
- Holy Spirit, strengthen me to walk in purity and obedience.
- Lord, let Your life and power be revealed through me today.

OCTOBER 8, 2026

Activate The Rivers Of Living Water!

By faith in Jesus Christ, rivers of living water flow from within us. Therefore, whatever strengthens, engages, and expresses genuine faith positions us to experience the life and activity of the Holy Spirit. Live by faith!

“He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.” — John 7:38

KJV

Jesus reveals an amazing spiritual reality: there are rivers of living water available to the believer. John explains that Jesus was speaking about the Holy Spirit. The Christian life was never designed to be dry, powerless, and empty. Through faith in Christ, we receive the Spirit, and His life is meant to flow through us to refresh, strengthen, and bless others.

Faith engages what God has graciously supplied. When you pray believing, meditate on the Word, worship, obey God's promptings, speak His promises, serve others, and step out courageously on His Word, you are actively exercising faith. These actions do not manufacture the Holy Spirit; they position your heart to yield to His presence and activity. Faith gives expression to the rivers within!

Do not allow fear, unbelief, passivity, or circumstances to dam the flow. Stir up your faith! Pray until your heart is awakened. Feed on the Word until faith rises. Worship until your attention shifts from the size of your problem to the greatness of your God. Then step out and do what you believe God is leading you to do.

Activate the rivers of living water! Live by faith, walk by faith, pray in faith, give in faith, serve in faith, and act in faith. May the life of the Spirit flow through you—bringing refreshing to the weary, hope to the discouraged, healing to the broken, and the knowledge of Christ to your generation.

Seed for Today

- Lord, increase my faith and awaken me to the life of Your Spirit.
- Holy Spirit, let Your living waters flow freely through me.
- Father, give me courage to live, speak, and act by faith today.

OCTOBER 9, 2026

Speak To The Sycamine Tree!

By faith, you can confront the stubborn, recurring challenges of life. Do not merely complain about the mountain or tolerate the tree—believe God and speak to it!

“And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.” — Luke 17:6 KJV

Jesus teaches that faith can speak to stubborn situations. Some challenges may appear small, yet they keep troubling your peace, progress, health, finances, family, or spiritual life. Faith does not require you to pretend the problem does not exist; faith enables you to confront it while trusting the power and promises of God.

Stop only talking about the debt—begin taking wise action and speaking God's provision over your finances. Do not surrender your hope because of sickness—seek appropriate care, pray, and keep trusting God. Speak to confusion, recurring setbacks, destructive habits, and every mess that refuses to move. Your faith may seem as small as a mustard seed, but its confidence is in a mighty God.

There are also things that must be uprooted, not merely trimmed. Deal with the root! Forgive where bitterness has taken hold. Repent where sin has opened a door. Correct poor decisions, seek wisdom, and take disciplined action. Then pray boldly and speak in agreement with God's Word. Faith speaks, faith obeys, and faith acts!

Speak to the sycamine tree! Refuse to spend another season merely describing what is troubling you. Trust God, address the situation, and take the necessary steps. May every stubborn obstacle be uprooted, and may grace, wisdom, healing, provision, and order spring forth in your life!

- • Father, uproot every stubborn obstacle resisting my progress.
- Lord, give me faith and wisdom to confront every challenge.
- By Your grace, let healing, provision, and restoration spring forth.

OCTOBER 10, 2026

Every Good Thing Is Coming To Me!

God is good, and He will not withhold what is truly good from those who walk with Him. Keep trusting Him and keep your mind stayed on Him; what He has appointed for your good will not be denied you.

“For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.” — Psalm 84:11 KJV

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.” — Isaiah 26:3 KJV

Every good and perfect gift comes from God. Therefore, you do not have to live anxious, envious, or afraid that life will pass you by. Your Father knows what you need, when you need it, and what will truly serve His purpose for your life. Sometimes His goodness comes as provision; at other times, as wisdom, protection, correction, opportunity, relationships, or even a closed door that preserves you for something better.

Keep your mind stayed on the Lord. Refuse to allow delay, disappointment, or what others possess to disturb your confidence in God's goodness. Trust Him while you pray, work, prepare, and wait. Faith does not sit idle; it remains expectant while walking diligently in obedience and wisdom.

Declare it boldly: Every good thing God has appointed for me is coming to me! I will not chase what God has not given me, and I will not fear losing what He has ordained for my good. May doors of opportunity open, may divine connections locate you, and may grace, wisdom, provision, peace, and favour abound toward you.

- Father, let every good thing appointed for me come in its season.

Seed for Today

- Lord, keep my mind stayed on You and my heart established in faith.
- Father, give me wisdom to recognize, receive, and steward Your blessings well.

OCTOBER 11, 2026

Happy Birthday Pastor Sandra!

The HighCity Churches and believers around the world have every reason to celebrate you today. We thank God for your life, ministry, kindness, love, and faithful service. May the coming days bring you greater strength, peace, wisdom, and grace to serve.

“God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.” —

Hebrews 6:10 KJV

Today, we pause to celebrate Pastor Sandra and acknowledge the immense contribution her ministry has brought to the Body of Christ. Every prayer offered, every person encouraged, every sacrifice made, and every act of service rendered in love matters before God. Heaven does not overlook the labour of love invested in His people and His work.

We especially thank God for your kindness, love, encouragement, and steadfast support for what God is doing in the life and ministry of Pastor Simpe. Scripture reminds us that those who strengthen the hands of others become partakers in the advancement of God's purpose. May the Lord remember every sacrifice, reward every labour of love, and replenish everything you have poured into others.

As you enter another year, may your strength increase and your peace multiply. May God give you greater wisdom for every assignment, fresh oil for ministry, good health for the journey, and grace for every new season. May your family flourish, your influence increase, and the fruit of your service remain for generations.

Today, we celebrate Pastor Sandra with thanksgiving and joy. I declare that the Lord will strengthen, preserve, refresh, and honour you. Your labour of love will not be forgotten. May grace multiply upon your life, may peace surround you, and may wisdom distinguish you. May the years ahead be fruitful, fulfilling, and filled with the goodness of God. Happy birthday, Pastor Sandra!

OCTOBER 12, 2026

Satan! Get Lost!

By faith, steadfast resistance, and fervent prayer, we refuse to give the devil any place. We submit ourselves to God, resist the enemy, and command every satanic influence to flee!

“Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” — James 4:7 KJV

“Whom resist stedfast in the faith...” — 1 Peter 5:9 KJV

The devil does not always leave because you noticed his activity; Scripture tells us to resist him. Resistance is an active stand of faith. When temptation, accusation, fear, deception, division, or discouragement presses against you, refuse to surrender your ground. Stand upon the Word of God and remain steadfast in faith.

Effective resistance begins with submission to God. Bring your thoughts, desires, relationships, habits, and decisions under the authority of Christ. Shut every door that sin, bitterness, compromise, or disobedience may have opened. Then stand boldly in the authority of Christ, knowing that the One who lives in you is greater than the enemy.

Add fervency to your faith! Pray earnestly, speak God's Word, refuse ungodly thoughts, and keep resisting until the pressure breaks. You do not have to negotiate with temptation or entertain the enemy's lies. Satan, get lost! I belong to Jesus Christ. My mind, body, family, calling, and future belong to God. I will stand firm in faith!

- Father, strengthen me to remain steadfast in faith.
- Lord, expose and close every door the enemy seeks to exploit.
- Satan, I resist you in the name of Jesus Christ—flee from me!

OCTOBER 13, 2026

Don't Pack Your Bags Yet!

Don't abandon the vision because the journey has become difficult. What God has appointed has its time; hold on in faith, keep doing what is right, and don't give up too soon.

“For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come...” — Habakkuk 2:3 KJV

There are moments when delay makes you want to pack your bags and walk away. You have prayed, waited, worked, believed, and yet things seem unchanged. But delay does not necessarily mean denial. The vision is for an appointed time. Some things need persistence, preparation, healing, growth, and God's timing before they fully unfold. It is only a matter of time!

Don't pack your bags yet! Don't quit the assignment, abandon your faith, or bury the dream simply because this season is hard. Keep praying, keep learning, keep building, keep showing up, and keep taking the next wise step. Your present circumstances are not the final chapter. God can still make a way where you cannot presently see one.

Hold on! Healing is coming. Restoration is coming. Fresh strength is coming. Good is coming. The vision will speak at its appointed time. Don't give up before your season changes. Don't walk away simply because you are weary. Strengthen your hands, steady your heart, and keep moving forward in faith.

I believe God's timing is working for my good. I will not surrender to discouragement or abandon the vision because of delay. I receive fresh strength to pray, work, wait, and advance. I believe healing, restoration, and good are ahead of me. By the grace of God, I will hold on until the vision speaks!

OCTOBER 14, 2026

Wait For Your Appointed Time!

God has appointed times and seasons, and waiting does not mean He has forgotten you. Stand firm in faith, remain faithful in the process, and wait with expectation until your change comes. God is faithful; He does not disappoint.

*“If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.” — Job
14:14 KJV*

There comes a season when you must speak with the faith and determination of Job: “I will wait till my change comes!” Waiting is not always easy, especially when you have prayed, believed, worked, and expected results. But do not interpret God's silence as His absence or delay as abandonment. Your story is still unfolding.

Waiting on God is not passive. While you wait, pray, prepare, learn, grow, work, and remain faithful. Do not destroy tomorrow because you are frustrated today. Refuse shortcuts that compromise your values, and do not abandon what God has placed in your heart simply because the appointed time has not yet arrived.

Your present condition is not necessarily your permanent condition. Seasons change. Doors open. Strength returns. Opportunities arise. God can restore what seemed lost and breathe fresh hope into what appeared finished. Wait for your appointed time! Your change will come. God is faithful, and those who trust Him will not be put to shame.

- Father, give me grace and strength to wait faithfully.
- Lord, preserve me from discouragement and destructive shortcuts.
- Father, let my appointed season of change and restoration come forth.

OCTOBER 15, 2026

A Strange Woman Is A Narrow Pit!

Sexual seduction outside God's boundaries is not harmless pleasure; it can become a trap with devastating consequences. Guard your heart, honour your covenant, and do not sacrifice your future for a moment of passion.

“For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit. She also lieth in wait as for a prey...” —

Proverbs 23:27–28 KJV

“Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.” — Proverbs 7:27 KJV

Scripture uses deliberately strong language because sexual temptation can carry serious consequences. Proverbs warns of the seductive person whose words flatter, whose invitation appears exciting, but whose path ends in destruction. Indeed, Proverbs says, “many strong men have been slain by her.” Do not overestimate your strength; establish boundaries before temptation arrives.

Reuben is a sobering example. He slept with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and that act brought lasting consequences upon his honour and inheritance (see Genesis 35:22; 49:3–4). Any relationship that disregards covenant, family boundaries, integrity, or sexual purity should raise serious concern. What feels secret today can become a source of pain tomorrow.

Do not fall for seduction! Flee situations that continually awaken lust, reject flattering invitations that demand compromise, and refuse secret relationships that cannot stand in the light. Guard your phone, conversations, meetings, emotions, and private moments. If you have already fallen, repent, seek God's forgiveness, establish new boundaries, and walk again in wisdom and purity.

Today I choose wisdom over seduction, covenant over compromise, and destiny over temporary pleasure. I will guard my heart, body, relationships, and honour. By the grace of God, I will flee sexual immorality, maintain healthy boundaries, and walk in purity. I will not trade my future for a moment of pleasure!

OCTOBER 16, 2026

The Love Of Money Is The Root Of All Evil!

There is nothing wrong with working hard, creating value, building wealth, and earning a legitimate living. The danger begins when money moves from being a useful servant to becoming the master of your heart.

“For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.” — 1

Timothy 6:10 KJV

Money itself is not evil. Scripture encourages diligent work, responsible provision, generosity, and faithful stewardship. Work hard, develop your skills, build your business, pursue excellence, save wisely, invest prudently, and provide for your household. There is dignity in legitimate labour, and God can prosper the work of your hands.

But beware of the love of money. When the desire for wealth becomes stronger than your commitment to God, truth, relationships, and integrity, money has become an idol. People have lied, cheated, betrayed friends, exploited others, compromised their bodies, abandoned their faith, and destroyed families because they wanted money at any cost. Never allow what you possess—or desire to possess—to possess you.

Let money remain a tool, never your god. Earn it honestly, manage it wisely, enjoy it responsibly, give generously, and use it to accomplish good. Be willing to walk away from any opportunity that requires you to sacrifice your conscience, character, or faith. Make money, but don't let money make you into someone God never intended you to become.

I will work diligently and earn an honest living, but money will never become my master. I refuse greed, covetousness, dishonesty, and every ungodly pursuit of wealth. God is my source, Christ is my treasure, and I will faithfully steward every resource entrusted to me. I will prosper with purpose, integrity, contentment, and generosity.

OCTOBER 17, 2026

Happy Birthday Pastor Simpe!

There is honour in remembering and celebrating those who labour among us, lead us in the Lord, and admonish us. Today, let us thank God for our shepherd, remember the sacrifices and love that go into caring for God's flock, and strengthen his hands through our prayers.

“And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake.” — 1 Thessalonians 5:12–13 KJV

Shepherding God's people is both a privilege and a weighty responsibility. Behind every sermon preached, prayer offered, counsel given, soul pursued, and vision carried are sacrifices that may never be publicly seen. Today, as we celebrate Pastor Simpe, let us remember the years of labour, love, prayer, teaching, correction, encouragement, and service invested in building people and advancing the work of God.

Celebration must go beyond kind words; let it become intercession. Paul asked the church, “Brethren, pray for us” (1 Thessalonians 5:25). Pray for your pastor’s strength, wisdom, health, family, ministry, and protection. Pray for fresh grace and greater utterance. Pray that every new year of his life will bring increased fruitfulness and greater impact for the Kingdom.

Above all, pray “that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified” (2 Thessalonians 3:1). May the message entrusted to us travel farther, touch more lives, raise more disciples, strengthen more churches, and reach more nations. Happy birthday, Pastor Simpe! May the Lord preserve you, strengthen you, enlarge your influence, and multiply the fruit of your labour.

Today, I thank God for Pastor Simpe and honour the grace and labour invested in shepherding God’s people. I pray that the Lord will renew his strength, increase his wisdom, preserve his life and family, and enlarge his ministry. I declare that the Word of the Lord through him shall have free course and be glorified. May his new year overflow with fresh grace, greater impact, lasting fruit, and the fulfilment of God's purpose!

OCTOBER 18, 2026

I Look To You!

When your strength is exhausted and every human option seems to have failed, lift your eyes to God. Your help is not limited to what you can see; your help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.

“I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.” — Psalm 121:1–2 KJV

There are moments when life brings you to the end of yourself. You have tried, prayed, waited, fought, and held on until you feel you have nothing left. People you expected to help may not be able to help, doors may remain closed, and answers may seem far away. When you cannot see a way forward, look up!

Your strength may fail, but God does not fail. Your resources may run low, but His resources are inexhaustible. Your wisdom may reach its limit, but His understanding is infinite. Stop measuring your future only by the strength you have left. The God who made heaven and earth is still your Helper, Keeper, Healer, Provider, and Sustainer.

When all hope seems gone, lift your eyes again. Look beyond the disappointment, the diagnosis, the debt, the rejection, and the closed door. Cry from your heart, “Lord, I look to You!” Trust Him for today's strength and take the next faithful step. Help can come from directions you never expected, because your ultimate help comes from the Lord.

Today I lift my eyes to the Lord. When my strength fails, I will lean on His strength. When I cannot see the way, I will trust His wisdom. I refuse to surrender to despair. The Lord is my Helper, my Keeper, and my hope. I look to Him, and by His grace, I will rise and move forward again!

OCTOBER 19, 2026

4 Boundaries Every Christian Should Set!

Living without boundaries is like a city without walls—exposed, vulnerable, and easily invaded. Godly boundaries do not imprison you; they protect your faith, purity, peace, relationships, and purpose.

“He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.” — Proverbs 25:28

KJV

Every believer needs spiritual boundaries. Decide what you will believe, what practices will shape your life, and what compromises you will refuse. Guard your prayer life, your time in the Word, your worship, and your fellowship with other believers. Do not allow busyness, relationships, entertainment, or ambition to gradually push God to the margins of your life.

Set relationship and sexual boundaries. Decide how close is too close, what conversations are inappropriate, where you should not go, and what situations you should never entertain. Then establish financial boundaries—live within your means, avoid dishonest gain, control impulsive spending, practise generosity, and refuse financial arrangements that repeatedly destroy your peace. Boundaries established before temptation are easier to maintain when pressure comes.

Finally, establish time and emotional boundaries. Everybody cannot have unlimited access to your time, attention, and emotional energy. Learn when to say yes and when to respectfully say no. Protect time for God, family, rest, work, and your assignment. You can love people without allowing unhealthy demands, manipulation, or unnecessary distractions to control your life.

Today, I choose to build godly walls around what God has entrusted to me. I will guard my spiritual life, relationships and sexuality, finances, time, and emotional well-being. I receive wisdom and discipline to say yes to what strengthens my purpose and no to what compromises it. By the grace of God, I will rule my spirit, protect my peace, walk in purity, and fulfil my assignment!

OCTOBER 20, 2026

Fill Me! My Soul Pants After You!

There is a thirst that success, possessions, relationships, and human applause can never satisfy. Deep within us is a longing for God Himself. Lord, I thirst for You; my heart is waiting for You. Fill me and refresh me again!

“As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God...” — Psalm 42:1–2 KJV

There are seasons when your soul becomes dry. You may still be working, serving, smiling, and fulfilling your responsibilities, yet deep within you something is crying for more of God. Do not silence that hunger. Your thirst for His presence is an invitation to draw near—to return to prayer, worship, the Word, and quiet fellowship with Him.

David did not merely thirst for what God could give him; he thirsted for God. There is a difference between seeking God's hand and seeking His face. Beyond the breakthrough, provision, healing, and open doors, there is the incomparable treasure of knowing Him, hearing His voice, enjoying His presence, and being refreshed by His Spirit.

Come thirsty! Make room for God again. Shut out the noise, lay aside distractions, and wait in His presence. Pray until your heart awakens; worship until your soul is refreshed; meditate on His Word until your faith comes alive again. Lord, I want to be in Your presence. My heart is waiting for You. Fill me! Refresh me! Let my soul overflow with Your life!

Lord, I thirst for You. My soul pants after Your presence, and my heart waits for You. I open myself afresh to Your Spirit. Fill every empty place, revive every dry place, and refresh my weary soul. I will seek You, love You, and remain in Your presence until my heart overflows with Your life!

OCTOBER 21, 2026

Talk To Jesus!

Whatever you are facing, talk to Jesus. Prayer is not speaking into emptiness; it is approaching the living God who hears us, cares for us, and answers according to His wisdom and will. You will never regret taking your heart to Jesus.

“And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.” — John 14:13

KJV

There are moments when you will not know whom to call, what to say, or what to do next. Your heart may be heavy with questions that nobody seems able to answer. Before anxiety overwhelms you, talk to Jesus! Tell Him about the fear, the pain, the decision, the family, the debt, the dream, and the situation you cannot fix by yourself.

Prayer is more than presenting requests; it is fellowship with the One who loves you. Sometimes His answer comes as an open door; sometimes as wisdom to make a difficult decision, strength to endure, peace while you wait, or a redirection you did not expect. His answer may not always come in the form or timing you imagined, but no sincere prayer offered in faith is wasted.

Make talking to Jesus your first response, not your last resort. Talk to Him in the morning, whisper His name in the middle of your busy day, and pour out your heart before you sleep. Pray when you understand and pray when you don't. Keep talking to Jesus—you will never regret spending time in His presence.

Today, I choose prayer over panic and faith over fear. Jesus hears me when I pray, and I trust Him with every concern of my heart. I will talk to Him about everything, receive His wisdom, trust His answers, and rest in His love. I will keep praying, keep believing, and keep expecting God's will to prevail in my life!

OCTOBER 22, 2026

The Miracle Days Are Here With Us!

God is still working miracles! His power has not diminished, His compassion has not failed, and His hand is not shortened. The miracle days are not merely behind us— God is at work today. Hear the right things, believe the right things, and release your faith!

“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.”

— Hebrews 13:8 KJV

“For with God nothing shall be impossible.” — Luke 1:37

KJV

Never allow constant exposure to fear, unbelief, bad reports, and negative voices to shape the limits of your expectation. Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. What you continually hear can influence what you believe, and what you believe will affect how you pray, speak, and act. Hear the right things! Fill your heart with God's Word and testimonies of His faithfulness.

Believe the right things! Believe that God still saves, heals, delivers, restores, provides, and opens doors. Faith does not deny reality; it refuses to make present circumstances greater than God. Whatever you are facing, leave room for divine intervention. The same God who worked through ordinary people in Scripture is still able to demonstrate His grace and power today.

Now release your faith! Pray boldly, speak in agreement with God's Word, obey His instructions, and take the steps faith requires. Stretch forth your hand again. Cast the net again. Knock again. Ask again. Expect God to work according to His wisdom and will. The miracle days are here with us—God is still working, and it is happening now!

I believe in the living and miracle-working God! I will hear the Word, believe the Word, speak the Word, and act in faith. I refuse to surrender my expectations to fear or unbelief. God is still saving, healing, restoring, providing, and making ways. I release my faith today and expect to see the goodness and power of God at work!

OCTOBER 23, 2026

Show Me Your Glory!

Lord, our hearts long for more than Your gifts; we long to behold You. Show us Your glory, because as we behold Your glory, we are transformed into the same image, from glory to glory, by Your Spirit.

“And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.” — Exodus 33:18 KJV

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory...” — 2 Corinthians 3:18 KJV

Lord, show us Your glory! Take us beyond merely knowing about You into a deeper experience of Your presence and character. Like Moses, we cry, “I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.” Open our eyes to see Your goodness, holiness, faithfulness, power, mercy, and beauty. Let every veil that obscures our vision be taken away.

We become increasingly shaped by what holds our attention. Therefore, turn our eyes away from distractions, fear, vanity, and the fading glory of this world. Fix our hearts upon Christ. As we behold Him in the Word, encounter Him in prayer, and worship Him in the beauty of holiness, let His character be formed in us. Change us by what You show us!

Lord, we do not want an encounter that leaves us unchanged. Let Your glory transform our thinking, desires, conversations, relationships, ministry, and conduct. Where there is weakness, reveal Your strength; where there is darkness, shine Your light; where there is dryness, breathe fresh life. Take us from glory to glory until our lives increasingly reflect Jesus.

Lord, show me Your glory! Open my eyes to behold Christ and remove every veil from my heart. As I behold Your glory, transform me into the image of Jesus. Change my heart, renew my mind, and fill my life with Your presence. Lord, let the glory I behold become the glory my life reflects!

OCTOBER 24, 2026

Subdue Nations Before Us!

By the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness, we are empowered to reign in life. God will give us influence, wisdom, strength, and opportunities to advance His purposes and become a blessing among the nations.

“For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.” —

Romans 5:17 KJV

“For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles...” — Isaiah

54:3 KJV

God's purpose for His people is not intimidation or oppression, but fruitful influence. Through Christ, we receive grace to overcome sin, limitations, fear, and every resistance to God's assignment. We shall arise in ministry, education, business, leadership, innovation, missions, and every legitimate sphere where God gives us opportunity. By grace and righteousness, we shall reign in life!

To subdue nations before us is to advance God's purposes through the gospel, wisdom, service, excellence, and righteous influence. We will cross boundaries, enter new territories, solve problems, build institutions, raise disciples, create opportunities, and carry the light of Christ wherever God sends us. We will not shrink before the size of the assignment.

Therefore, arise and enlarge your vision! Prepare yourself, sharpen your gifts, deepen your faith, and walk in righteousness. Nations are reached by people who are willing to go, serve, build, teach, give, and preach. By the grace of God, barriers will fall, doors will open, and the influence of Christ through us will spread beyond our present borders.

I receive abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness. Through Jesus Christ, I shall reign in life. I will not be subdued by fear, sin, opposition, or limitation. God will enlarge my influence and establish the work of my hands. I will serve, build, disciple, and advance His Kingdom. By grace and righteousness, we shall have dominion and become a blessing to nations!

OCTOBER 25, 2026

You Can Overcome The World!

You were not born of God to be conquered by the pressures, temptations, fears, and systems of this world. Through Christ, you have an overcoming life within you, and faith is the victory that enables you to stand and prevail.

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.” — 1 John 5:4 KJV

The world will put pressure on your convictions. There will be temptations to compromise, reasons to fear, moments of disappointment, and voices telling you to abandon what you believe. But Scripture does not say that those born of God might overcome; it declares that whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world! Your circumstances may challenge you, but they do not have to conquer you.

Our victory is faith—faith in Jesus Christ, faith in His finished work, faith in His Word, and faith expressed through obedience. Faith does not pretend that battles do not exist; it gives you courage to face them without surrendering. Feed your faith with the Word, strengthen it through prayer, speak what God has said, and keep walking in obedience even when circumstances disagree.

Do not allow the spirit of this age to determine your values, identity, or destiny. You can overcome temptation without surrendering, endure hardship without losing hope, prosper without losing your soul, and face opposition without abandoning your assignment. Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world!

I am born of God, and I overcome the world! I refuse to bow to fear, temptation, discouragement, or ungodly pressure. My faith is my victory. I believe God's Word, I stand in Christ, and I will walk in obedience. Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world. By faith, I will overcome, advance, and finish my course with victory!

OCTOBER 26, 2026

6 Things The Lord Hates!

Not everything you have the liberty or opportunity to do is profitable. “All things are lawful,” but all things are not expedient. Wisdom asks not only, “Can I do this?” but also, “Does this please God, strengthen my faith, and honour His purpose for my life?”

“These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies...” — Proverbs 6:16–19 KJV

“All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient...” — 1 Corinthians 6:12 KJV

Scripture identifies attitudes and behaviours God hates because they destroy people and corrupt relationships.

Pride exalts self above others; lying destroys trust; violence against the innocent disregards the sanctity of life; wicked imaginations allow evil to take root in the heart; feet running to mischief reveal an appetite for wrongdoing; and false witnessing uses words to damage others. Proverbs goes further to warn against sowing discord among brethren.

Grace does not give us permission to embrace everything our culture permits. Something may be legal, popular, fashionable, entertaining, or socially acceptable and still be spiritually unprofitable. The mature believer learns to examine choices by the Word of God. Do not merely ask whether something is allowed; ask whether it edifies, whether it controls you, whether it harms others, and whether it glorifies God.

Take inventory of your heart today. Reject pride, dishonesty, malicious thoughts, destructive behaviour, false accusations, and anything that divides people unnecessarily. Choose humility, truth, purity, peace, justice, and love. You have been called to freedom, but use your freedom to honour Christ.

Today, I choose what pleases God, not merely what is permissible. I reject pride, lies, wicked imaginations, violence, mischief, false accusations, and division. I will not be mastered by anything that weakens my faith or corrupts my character. By the grace of God, my thoughts, words, choices, and relationships will honour Christ and build others up!

OCTOBER 27, 2026

There Are Two Media Of Prayer!

Scripture presents two expressions of personal prayer: praying with the understanding and praying with the spirit. There are times to engage your mind intelligently in prayer, and there are times to pray beyond the limits of your understanding. Learn to do both.

“For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also...” — 1 Corinthians 14:14–15 KJV

When you pray with the understanding, your mind and reasoning are engaged. You know what you are asking, confessing, declaring, or thanking God for. You can pray specifically about your family, health, ministry, work, decisions, needs, and future. Your understanding helps you articulate your burdens and present definite requests before God.

But Paul also speaks of praying with the spirit, where he says, “my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.” There are moments when words and human reasoning seem inadequate. You may sense a burden but not fully understand it. In such moments, prayer in the spirit allows you to continue communing with God beyond what your mind can presently articulate.

Paul did not choose one and reject the other. He declared, “I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also.” Develop both dimensions of prayer. Pray intelligently and specifically, but do not allow the limits of your understanding to become the limits of your prayer life. Engage your mind, engage your spirit, and keep praying!

Today, I choose a deeper and more balanced life of prayer. I will pray with my understanding, presenting definite requests before God, and I will pray with my spirit when my understanding is unfruitful. I refuse to be limited by what my mind alone can comprehend. By the grace of God, I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also!

OCTOBER 28, 2026

6 Graces To Abound In!

God does not want us merely to possess grace; He wants us to abound in it. As we grow in faith, speech, knowledge, diligence, and love, we must also grow in the grace of giving. Spiritual maturity should touch both our character and our generosity.

“Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.” — 2

Corinthians 8:7 KJV

Paul identifies six areas in which believers should abound: faith, utterance, knowledge, diligence, love, and giving. Abound in faith until you confidently trust God; in utterance until your words communicate grace and truth; and in knowledge until you increasingly understand God's Word and apply it wisely. Christianity must produce continuous growth.

Abound also in diligence and love. Be dependable, hardworking, committed, and excellent in what God has entrusted to you. Let your love mature beyond words into patience, forgiveness, service, compassion, and practical care. Never become so gifted or knowledgeable that you become careless about loving people.

Then Paul adds, “See that ye abound in this grace also.” Giving is a grace in which we must intentionally grow. Do not only grow in praying, preaching, knowledge, and spiritual gifts—grow in generosity! Give willingly, wisely, cheerfully, and according to your ability. Let your resources become instruments through which God’s work advances and people are blessed.

Today, I choose to abound in grace. I will grow in faith, utterance, knowledge, diligence, love, and giving. I refuse spiritual stagnation and selfish living. God is working in me to make me stronger in faith, richer in love, more diligent in service, and increasingly generous. By His grace, I will abound in every good work and in the grace of giving also!

OCTOBER 28, 2026

Edify Yourself!

He who prays in an unknown tongue does not only speak mysteries unto God; he also edifies himself. There are moments when you must deliberately strengthen your inner man through prayer in the Spirit.

“For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.” — 1

Corinthians 14:2 KJV

“He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself...” — 1 Corinthians 14:4 KJV

To edify means to build up, strengthen, and develop. Life can drain you. Battles, responsibilities, disappointments, temptations, and constant demands can leave you spiritually weary. Paul reveals that praying in tongues has a personal edifying dimension: as you speak unto God in the Spirit, your inner man is being built up.

There are mysteries beyond your present understanding and situations for which you may not know exactly how to pray. Do not allow the limitations of your understanding to silence your prayer. Make room for prayer in the Spirit. Jude similarly exhorts believers to build themselves up in their most holy faith, “praying in the Holy Ghost” (see Jude 20). Pray with understanding, and as part of your spiritual practice, pray in the Spirit.

Do not wait until you feel spiritually empty before strengthening yourself. Develop a consistent prayer life. Set aside time to worship, meditate on Scripture, pray with your understanding, and pray in tongues according to your faith and practice. Edify yourself! Build spiritual stamina before the battle comes, and remain sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Today, I will build myself up in faith and prayer. I refuse to remain spiritually weak, dry, or distracted. I will pray with my understanding, and I will pray in the Spirit. As I fellowship with God, my inner man is strengthened, my faith is stirred, and my heart becomes increasingly sensitive to the Holy Spirit. I will edify myself and remain strong in the Lord!

OCTOBER 29, 2026

Prayer That Gets Results!

Prayer that gets results engages the whole inner man: the cry of your spirit, the meditation of your heart, the words of your mouth, and the thoughts and imaginations of your mind. When these are brought into agreement with the Word and will of God, you pray with greater focus, faith, and confidence.

“Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD...” — Psalm 19:14 KJV

“...the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.” — Romans 8:26 KJV

First, there is the cry of your spirit. Effective prayer goes deeper than religious words; there are burdens that rise from within by the help of the Holy Spirit. Second, there are the meditations of your heart. What you continually believe and treasure inwardly matters. Let your heart meditate on God's promises rather than constantly rehearsing fear, disappointment, and defeat.

Third, there are the words of your mouth. Prayer must find expression. Ask, confess, intercede, give thanks, and speak in agreement with God's Word. Finally, guard the thoughts and imaginations of your mind. Do not spend an hour praying for victory and the rest of the day imagining defeat.

Bring every thought into obedience to Christ and allow God's Word to reshape the pictures you carry within. Bring all four into agreement: your spirit crying, your heart believing, your mouth speaking, and your mind expecting according to God's Word and will. Refuse the contradiction of praying one thing while believing, speaking, and imagining the opposite. Pray fervently, believe deeply, speak faithfully, think scripturally—and trust God with the answer.

Today, I bring my whole being into agreement with God's Word and will. My spirit will cry unto God, my heart will meditate on His promises, my mouth will speak words of faith, and my mind will dwell on what agrees with His truth. I refuse fear, double-mindedness, and negative imaginations. I will pray in faith, according to His will, and confidently expect God to hear me!

OCTOBER 30, 2026

21 Days Of Prayer And Fasting!

Fasting is more than abstaining from food; it is deliberately setting ourselves apart to seek the face of God, humble our souls, pursue the good of others, show mercy, and realign our lives with His will. These 21 days must be days of focused prayer, the Word, compassion, and spiritual renewal.

“Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free... Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry...?” — Isaiah 58:6–7 KJV

Biblical fasting must draw us closer to God and make us more responsive to His heart. We are not merely changing our diet; we are creating room to seek the Lord. Fast with expectation. Spend time in the Word, worship, repent where necessary, intercede for others, forgive offences, show mercy, help someone in need, and allow God to work deeply in your heart.

Do not enter these 21 days casually. Set your prayer times. Decide when you will meet with God each day and protect those moments from unnecessary distractions. Set your prayer venues. Find places where you can consistently withdraw, focus, and pray. Jesus taught that there is value in entering your closet and shutting the door. Discipline gives structure to spiritual desire.

Finally, get a prayer list. Write down the people, situations, needs, dreams, ministries, families, communities, and nations you are trusting God for. Pray specifically and consistently, while remaining open to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Let these 21 days produce more than hunger— let them produce transformation, compassion, clarity, spiritual strength, and renewed devotion to God.

I set myself apart to seek the Lord during these 21 days of prayer and fasting. I will establish my prayer times, prepare my prayer venues, and pray diligently through my prayer list. I will seek God's face, pursue the good of others, show mercy, and walk in obedience. I believe these days will deepen my fellowship with God, strengthen my spirit, sharpen my discernment, and prepare me for His purposes. Lord, here I am—draw me closer!

Prayer For Salvation

We trust that you have been blessed by this devotional. We invite you to make Jesus Christ the lord of your life by praying thus:

Lord Jesus, I call upon Your name today. I believe in my heart that You died for my sins and that God raised You from the dead. I confess You as my Lord and Saviour. Forgive my sins, save me, and give me new life. Help me to hear Your Word, grow in faith, and follow You all the days of my life. Amen!

Congratulations! You are now child of God. To receive more information on how to grow, get in touch:

Email: info@highcity.org

Call or WhatsApp: +233278622627

About The Author

Pastor Simpe Bediako is the Senior Pastor of HighCity Church, a prolific author, educationist, civil engineer, inspiring public speaker, and Christian minister with a passion for raising people who will discover purpose, grow in faith, and make meaningful impact in their generation.

His ministry is marked by a strong emphasis on prayer, faith, discipleship, soul-winning, leadership, and practical Christian living. Through preaching, teaching, writing, and mentoring, Pastor Simpe seeks to make biblical truth simple, relevant, and applicable to everyday life. His messages challenge believers not only to hear the Word of God but to translate faith into wisdom, character, diligent action, and service.

Beyond pastoral ministry, Pastor Simpe is deeply involved in education and human development. He is the Proprietor of Sandy School, an educational institution established in 2005, and has contributed to curriculum development, teaching, educational administration, and the preparation of learning materials for young people. His passion is to see learners develop knowledge, competence, character, creativity, and the confidence required to thrive in a changing world.

Trained also as a civil engineer, Pastor Simpe brings an analytical, practical, and solution-oriented approach to leadership and development. His professional interests span engineering consultancy, construction, educational development, institutional building, writing, and publishing. This unusual combination of ministry, engineering, and education has shaped his conviction that genuine faith should inspire people to pray, think, build, solve problems, and transform society.

As an author, he writes devotionals, Christian teaching materials, leadership resources, and educational books. His writings are characterised by simple language, strong biblical foundations, practical wisdom, prophetic encouragement, and clear calls to action. SEED reflects this passion: to place a relevant word in the hands of readers each day that will strengthen their faith and inspire purposeful living.

Pastor Simpe remains committed to preaching Christ, building people, developing institutions, raising the next generation, and using every gift and opportunity God provides for the advancement of His Kingdom.

His message is simple: Believe God, grow in wisdom, serve faithfully, take action, and make your life count.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Rev. Noah Simpe Bediako is the Founder and Senior Pastor of HighCity Church. Trained as a Civil Engineer at KNUST - Kumasi, he now leads this mighty movement of youthful believers with a deep passion for soul winning and genuine pragmatic faith.

‘He also established Sandy School, a Christian Educator which is run by Pastor Sandra and a team of Christian Volunteers and other paid staff. Pastor Simpe lives in Accra, Ghana with his wife Pastor Sandra and their three children Danny, Judah Joel, and Michel.